

Job Listing: 3/21/2017

Director of Children's Ministry and Christian Education. Farmville United Methodist Church is hiring for a 15 hour a week position.

The successful applicant will have a heart for children and a strong sense of Christian theology, with emphasis on Methodist doctrine. An undergraduate degree in Christian education, religion or related field is preferred. Strong organizational and human relation skills required. Must be proficient in MS Office or its equivalent. Self-directed team player with a creative ability to empower laity, solve problems, generate new programs, and revitalize and improve ongoing programs. Be resourceful in the assimilation of new members into the life of the congregation while continuing to value the contributions of current members.

Applications should be sent to Farmville UMC, PO Box 64, Farmville, Virginia 23901. Contact the church at 434-392-4686 for more information.